

Instructions for completing column B

This glossary will be used, among other things, for term consistency checks.

In column B, please enter the equivalent term in column B in its dictionary form (e.g. in singular, in lower case, etc.) except for lexicalized inflected or capitalized forms.

The glossary needs to reflect potential variability due to inflection (e.g. number, gender, conjugation, etc.), declination (cases like accusative, dative, etc.), derivation (suffixes to build lexical families), determination (e.g. articles, etc.). For that, we will use wildcards, as follows:

If the base form of the word changes by adding a suffix.

Use the pipe (|) to separate the invariable part of a word from the variable part:

We assume that the invariable part of a word
